

RECREATION FEES

The instructional recreational programs for children and adults provided by the Recreation & Senior Services Department will be conducted for a fee to offset associated cost with managing such programs. Registration fees will be based on an amount sufficient to acquire independent contractors, class materials and the administrative overhead and a facility use fee. Occasionally, it may be necessary to conduct programs in which revenues are not sufficient to be self-supporting as authorized by Chapter 3.36 of the Municipal Code. The Recreation & Senior Services Director or designee is authorized to enter into agreements for securing independent contractors for approved instructional recreation activities.
